

LOCATION

On the island of Falhumaafushi in the Gaafu Alifu atoll - one of the largest and deepest atolls in the world. The resort lies 242 miles south of the capital Male and Ibrahim Nasir International Airport and approximately 45 miles north of the Equator. It is reached by a 55-minute direct* domestic flight to Kooddoo airport and a seven minute speed-boat transfer. *subject to flight schedule

RECREATION

Offering some of the best and most remote diving in the world, the resort has its own PADI 5* Dive Centre and is surrounded by rare, unspoilt coral reefs and exceptional dive sites that are five minutes to an hour away from the resort. The resort's house reef is The Falhuma Reef which starts at about 1m and descends to around 28m.

Complimentary non-motorised water sport activities offered include sailing, kayaking, windsurfing and snorkelling. Windsurfing and catamaran sailing lessons are available for beginners at a fee.

Activities available at an additional cost include: catamaran hire, scuba-diving, water-skiing, knee-boarding, tubing, jet-skis and excursions such as dolphin and sunset cruise, deep-sea fishing and trips to other islands and local villages.

RESTAURANTS & BARS

The Dining Room
Dine to idyllic ocean views at the resort's all-day dining restaurant, featuring International Asian and Indian Ocean fare. Children menus are also available.

The Falhuma
A romantic overwater dining experience at the end of a 230-m long jetty, the speciality restaurant serves an elegant dinner affair of modern inspired Euro-Asian cuisine. Indulgent afternoon tea experience features a selection of fine teas and a medley of sweet and savoury delights. The relaxed and intimate setting of The Falhuma Bar makes for the perfect spot for pre or post dinner cocktails.

The Sunset Grill (previously known as Flames – now branded as The Sunset Grill)
Alfresco beach dining under a canopy of stars, savour fresh, sumptuous seafood and meats grilled on the spot. A beachside BBQ feast featured 3 times a week, subject to weather conditions.

The Beach Bar
Overlooking the beach and partially submerged in the main swimming pool, the bar serves light dishes and island drinks during the day and tapas and signature cocktails at night.

The Library Bar
Located above The Lobby, complimented by panoramic ocean vistas, this indoor bar is a chill-out spot to lounge about with a good book or a game of billiards or chess whilst enjoying cocktails and light bites from the deli cafe.

Private Dining
Under the stars, on the beach, or in the privacy of your own villa, special themed dinner experiences for couples or family awaits. For a real Robinson Crusoe experience hop on a dinghy to the castaway Koduhutta island, just two minutes away for a picnic lunch or a romantic beach dinner.

THE SPA BY CLARINS

Exclusive to The Residence Maldives, it is the first and only Spa by Clarins in the Maldives and offers an array of holistic treatments, pampering massages and hair services. Linked to the mainland by a jetty, six individual pavilions overlook the serene waters of the lagoon. Special spa experiences in-villa and on the castaway island are also available. The large open yoga deck is the perfect spot to embrace spectacular views and rejuvenate the mind, body and soul.

KIDS CLUB

Trained staff are on hand to entertain children from three years to 12 years old. Babysitting is available at an additional cost.
